Key words: living will, health situation, dying.

This thesis examines the opinions and knowledge of public awareness of living will. The aims of study was to determine whether people want legalization living will and whether people are informed about this institute. Much of the work is devoted to situations that were the reason for respondent s to write living will. The results of this work could inspire greater public awareness of the living will.