“Academic 15 minutes” means

“Academic 15 minutes” means

- a) it is tolerated if a teacher appears in class 15 minutes late.
- b) it is tolerated if a student appears in class 15 minutes late.
- c) the class has to start 15 minutes later than what is written in the official timetables.
- d) it is just a saying that has no effect to the class management.

When a student comes after a session asking for help with the subject matter.

When a student comes after a session asking for help with the subject matter.

- a) Always, the teacher has to deal with that issue at that moment of the student request.

- b) The teacher should never deal with that issue in the time of a break. Instead, they should inform the student about their consultation hours and instruct them to come for that time to their office.

- c) It depends on the student's request, on the situation, on how busy the teacher is at the moment....

- Let's meet at lunch/dinner time: When is it?

- Let's meet at lunch/dinner time: When is it?
- When a person sneezes. What do you say?

- Let's meet at lunch/dinner time: When is it?
- When a person sneezes. What do you do/say?
- You have arrived at an informal event. You can see there are four people there, you know one of them. What do you do? How do you greet the four/what do you say?

Enjoy the rest of the summer school!
