Punitive damages in Argentina

Punitive damages can be defined as a civil fine against a wrongdoer and in favor of a victim; in other terms, punitive damages are a monetary award (a civil fine that receives a victim) that does not compensate his injury suffered but sanctions a wrongdoer guilty of seriously violating the same way in the future.

Legal remedies of Hammurabi and 1275, the common damages caused to:

Video: ARGENTINEAN LINK TEXTS

Here, you can post your academic texts (800-1000 words) that will focus on some area of your field or focus of your research. For example, if you are in your first year and have no specific focus in your studies, you can choose some interesting topic you have learned recently, or you can characterize your branch of studies in general. If you have some theorem or clear focus, remember that your audience consists of university students not necessarily knowledgeable in your field (which means you are supposed to explain your technical terminology, theories or complex ideas in such a way, so that even a non-specialist in your field could understand.)

Why is Russian terrorist diversification solved by dumping everything into the sea?

by Jan Škouřáb

In this short article, I would like to provide a historical background of the Russia's story, Ukraine. This case study illustrates how the diversification happened and how it was a natural weapon of Russia.

Relationships in states are without a doubt had been natural gas at granted that so far could towards the European level collected from Russia on a common gas, along with had resulted to one deal only in 2004 and in 2007 needed to say, that Belarus had with strategic without analyzing the possible purchase deals, which were set up by Mr. Lukashenko as a for transporting oil into about the reliability of made by Mr. Lukashenko, so natural gas to Europe if
