

Czechindustry.cz 16.8.2006

Masaryk University develops software to battle plagiarism

Brno's Masaryk University has developed a new computer software program to combat plagiarism. The first of its kind in the Czech Republic, the software is modeled on those used at universities in North America.

The system will be accessible to both staff and students at Masaryk University, though it is expected that university instructors will make the most use of the new tool.

Author: Mgr. Martin Weber | Source: Copyright Radio Prague, www.radio.cz

URL | <http://czechindustry.cz/revue/en/view.php?cisloclanku=2006080117>