

Non-disclosure statement

pursuant to Act No. 101/2000 Coll., as amended and the Directive Camera System Operation, to secure the operation of a digital camera system in the premises of Lipová 41a, 602 00 Brno

I..... born on: uin:

employee of the department.....

hereby unconditionally undertake to keep confidential all information and facts (especially about personal data or security measures) protected in the sense of Act No. 101/2000 Coll., as amended, and other binding legal regulations, which I will learn in connection with the operation of the camera system installed in the premises of Lipová 41a, 602 00 Brno, even after the termination of my employment with the employer.

At the same time, I undertake to compensate my employer or other persons who would have suffered demonstrable damage in connection with my demonstrable personal violation of generally binding legal regulations and the relevant internal regulations of the employer for any damage incurred in connection with the breach of this obligation up to the amount stipulated by the relevant legal regulations.

I declare that I am aware that the employer may consider non-compliance with the above obligations as a gross breach of the obligations arising from the legislation relating to the work performed, which may be a reason for the termination of my employment. The employer's right to claim damages and other legal sanctions remain unaffected.

In Brno on

.....
signature of the employee