

Czech in Practice

You can choose from following courses organised by the Department of Czech Language and Literature, Faculty of Education:

CJMPE_CjCM Exercise of Czech grammar

For international students (in Czech, required level B1)

The aim of the course is to practice and deepen knowledge of Czech grammar. At the end of course student should be able to correctly form a sentence according Czech grammar and Czech word order rules.

CJMPE_JKTT Czech conversation and text writing

For international students (in Czech, required level B1)

At the end of course student will be able to create a common written texts and speeches, write and speak in accordance with Czech grammar rules.

CJMPE_Real Czech realities

For international students (in Czech, required level B1)

The aim of the course is to deepen the knowledge of the Czech culture, traditions, gastronomy and current affairs. Crucial aspects of social and political development and some historical issues will be involved as well. Interesting destinations for trips in Czech Republic will be recommended. Most important and frequent Czech expressions and phrases will be mentioned.