2. Exchange of Students

All parties agree to explore the possibility of student exchange. Any arrangement of student exchange shall be governed by a separate agreement on student exchange specifically signed for that purpose. The student exchange agreement may constitute part of this MOU or may be signed independently.

3. Exploration of Teaching Collaboration

All parties agree to explore the possibility of cooperation in offering degree programs and/or training courses. The specific implementation of collaborative projects shall be negotiated separately pursuant to the needs of parties involved.

4. Scientific Research Collaboration

All parties encourage scientific research collaboration in mutually interesting research projects. The specific implementation of collaborative projects shall be negotiated separately pursuant to the needs of parties involved.

5. Sharing of Joint Research Results

Results of any joint research achieved during the collaboration period (such as research papers, developed samples, physical products, etc.) and attributable profits shall be shared among the parties concerned according to their agreed extent of contribution.

6. Exchange of Institutional Publications

All parties shall exchange official publications such as annual reports, research publications, etc.

7. Validity and Renewal

This MOU is written in six counterparts and each party shall keep one original counterpart. This MOU shall come into effect immediately once signed and shall stay in force for FIVE (5) years. All parties reserve the right to terminate this MOU by giving a written notice with no less than SIX (6) months termination period. All parties shall discuss and decide on the continuation or revision of the MOU SIX (6) months prior to its expiration.

Pursuant to the Act No. 340/2015, On Contract Register (Contract Register Act), the text of MOU shall be published. The contract shall be made accessible to the general public, but personal data, signatures and bank account information shall be omitted.
