*Central Europe

• What is the definition of "CENTRAL EUROPE"?

Or

• Where is "CENTRAL EUROPE"?

*Central Europe

ODemarcation of CE:

- Geographical
- Historical and political development, CE as a cultural unit
- Religion
- Political and economical development
- A Yearbook of Central European Culture characterizes Central Europe "as an abandoned West or a place where East and West collide"
- Germany's Constant Committee for Geographical Names defines Central Europe both as a distinct cultural area and a political region. George Schöpflin and others argue that Central Europe is defined by being "a part of Western Christianity", while Samuel P. Huntington places the region firmly within Western culture

*Geographical demarcation of CE

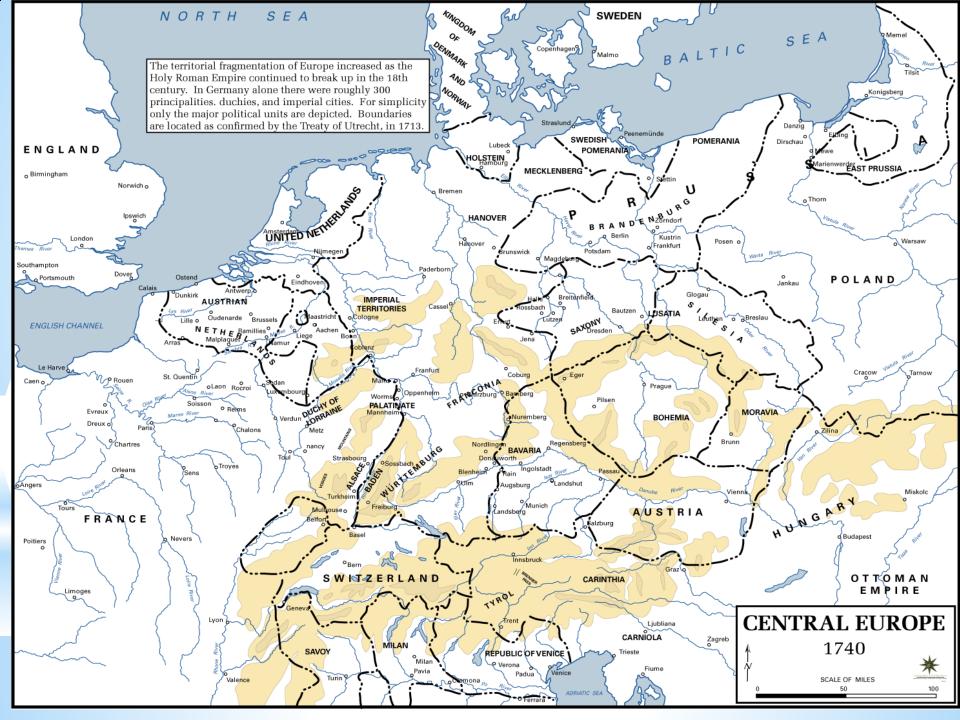

- Germany, Poland, Hungary, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Austria, Switzerland, Liechtenstein (last 3 – Alpine countries)
- Earlier publication CE includes also Belgium, the Netherlands, Luxemburg and Romania (1935)

X

- Slovenia, Croatia (new concept)
- climate, water shed, mountains

Historical development of CE

- CE direct influence of "Germany" (Holy Roman Empire, The Habsburg Monarchy)
- Division of CE capitalistic bloc x Soviet Bloc

Divided Europe During the cold war, Europe was divided into opposing military alliances, the North American Treaty Organization (NATO) and the Warsaw Pact (Communist bloc).

*CE as a cultural unit?

- Cultural concept of CE till 1795 (disitengration of Poland) The Habsburg Monarchy, Poland, Lithuania, part of Bavaria (this region had many common interests: politics, literature, architecture, fear of Russian Empire, Osman Empire, Swedes and Prussians)
- 1867 emergence of Austria Hungary and CE as a cultural unit: Czech part, Austria, Slovakia, part of Poland part of Ukraine, Hungary, Transylvania, western Romania, Vojvodina, Croatia, Slovenia, South Tyrol and Bavaria

*CE - Mitteleuropa

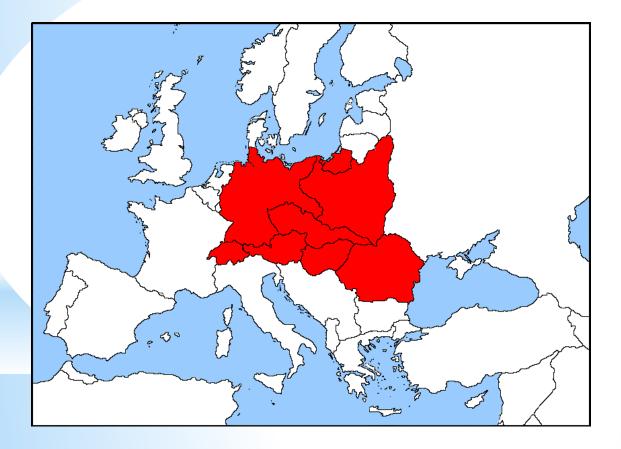

- Mitteleuropa meaning Middle Europe, is one of the German terms for CE The term has acquired diverse cultural, political and historical connotation
- The Prussian vision of Mitteleuropa was a pan-Germanist state-centric imperium, an idea that was later adopted in a modified form by National Socialist geopoliticians
- Friedrich Naumann's Mitteleuropa (1915) was a liberal voice in the largely illiberal German discussion on the future of East Central and South East Europe. His reasoning, based on principles of free trade and voluntary cooperation, did not dominate this debate, which, in consequence, centered upon German territorial annexations
- Plus other visions of CE eg. Jörg Brechtefeld "... The term Mitteleuropa never has been merely a geographical term; it is also a political one, much as Europe, East and West, are terms that political scientists employ as synonyms for political ideas or concepts. Traditionally, Mitteleuropa has been that part of Europa between East and West. As profane as this may sound, this is probably the most precise definition of Mitteleuropa available..."

- 1904 in Berlin Central European Economic Association (economic integration of Germany and Austria–Hungary with eventual extension to Switzerland, Belgium and the Netherlands)
- T. G. Masaryk CE space between Germany and Russia

* Central Europe and the Czech Lands in the Middle Ages

Jana Musilová, PhD

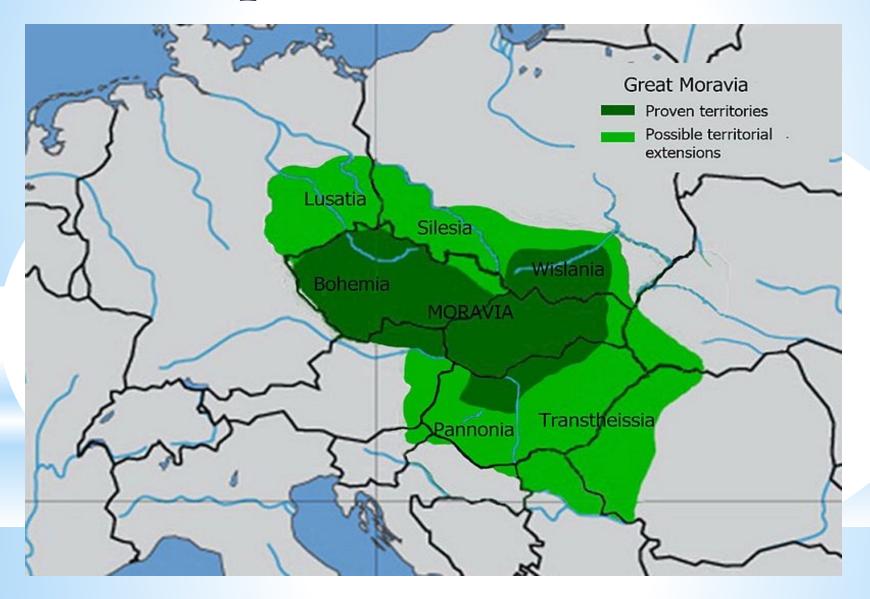

- Elements of unity for Western and Central Europe were Roman Catholicism and Latin
- Eastern Europe, which remained Eastern Orthodox Christian, was the area of Byzantine cultural influence; after the schism (1054), it developed cultural unity and resistance to the Western world (Catholic and Protestant) within the framework of Slavonic language and the Cyrillic alphabet

*Great Moravia

- Was the first major state that was predominantly Slavonic
- Emerge in the area of Central Europe
- The core of Great Moravia was established, according to legend, in the early 830's, when Prince Mojmír I crossed the Morava and conquered the principality of Nitra (present-day western Slovakia)
- Moravia reached its largest territorial extent under Svatopluk I, who ruled from 870 to 894, and who was occasionally styled as king in contemporaneous sources

*Map of Great Moravia

*Great Moravia – cultural development

- Significant cultural development under Rastislav
- 863 of the mission of Cyril and Methodius (Rastislav had asked the Byzantine emperor to send a "teacher" to introduce literacy and a legal system to Great Moravia)
- Brothers Cyril and Methodius introduced a system of writing (the Glagolitic alphabet) and Slavonic liturgy, the latter formally approved by Pope Adrian

*Collaps of Great Moravia

• Separatism and internal conflicts emerging after Svatopluk's death contributed to the fall of Great Moravia, which was overrun by the Hungarians. The exact date of Moravia's collapse is unknown, but it occurred between 902 and 907

The Holy Roman Empire around 1400

* The church in 14th and 15th century

- The crisis of Papacy
- 14th century Great Papal Schism two Popes one in Rome (Italy) and one in Avignon (France)
- 1409 the council of Pisa elected a new pope \rightarrow three popes
- 1410 indulgences were authorized by one of the Popes (John XXIII) who wanted to get money for the crusade against his rival Pope Gregory XII and his protector king Ladislaus of Naples
- 1414 the Council of Constance was called the main purpose was to finish the papal schism
- 1417 a new pope Martin V was recognized by the entire Europe
 the schism was ended

The schism caused aslo diplomatic crisis in Europe – each secular ruler had to choose which Pope he would had supported

* The Hussite Revolution (1419 - 1436)

- Master Jan Hus became one of the forerunners of the Protestant Reformation, was inspired and influenced by British thinker John Wyclif (†1384)
- Scholar, clergyman, preacher at the Betlehem Chapel in Prague and Professor of Prague University, 1402 Rector of Prague University
- Wanted to reform certain practices of the Roman Catholic Church
- He was protesting against clerical abuses, especially the sale of indulgences (paying for forgivness of the sins during the confession)
- Declared that the clergy should live according to the Bible, in poverty, without property and without a secular power
- Proclaimed that the believers should understand the Holy Writ so it should be proclaimed in the national languages, not in latine
- 1410 Hus was excomunicated from the church by Pope Alexander V
- https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=N9gjzpM01Gc

* Master Jan Hus

Jan Hus at the stake.

- Jan Hus was invited to the Council of Constance to defend himself and explain his theories
- The King of Holy Roman Empire Sigismund guaranteed to Jan Hus a safe passage through the HRE but he didn't have any jurisdiction at the Council of Constance \rightarrow Hus was imprisoned in Constance for 8 months
- Master Jan Hus was condemned by the Council at Constance as a heretic and was sentenced to death.
- 6th July1415 he was burnt to death at the stake.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0 Vr04TNrbt4

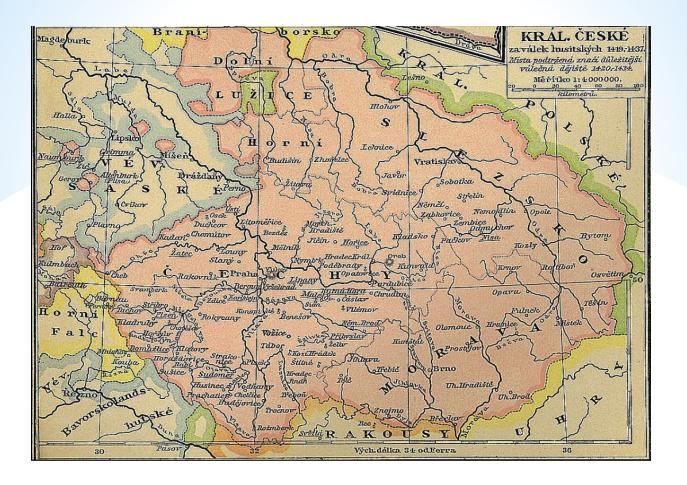

* The Hussites

- The Bohemian people blamed Emperor Sigismund for Hus' death so they did not want him to become the king of Bohemia after Wenceslaus' death in 1419
- Hus' followers launched powerful religious movement, they called themselves the Hussites; (or the Men of the Chalice the symbol of Hussites movement)
- Principles:
- Freedom to preach the Word of God
- Celebration of the Lord's Supper in both kinds (bread and wine to priests and laity alike
- No secular power for the clergy.
- Punishment for the mortal sins.
- 1420 after his corronation in 1420 the Hussite uprising in Bohemia → the so called Hussite wars started
- Catholics against Hussites
- Sigismund organized five crusade campains against Hussites but all the campains were unsuccesfull (due to the outstanding military leader of Hussites Jan Žižka who became a hero in the Czech tradition)
- https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AOcUVplxVOo

- Almost 15 years of religious struggles and civil wars the country was destroyed and plundered: the ecomonical consequences: starvation, stagnation of the bussiness, destroyed buildings
- Hussite movement split into two fractions: the moderate and the radical: Moderate Hussites wanted to finish the warfare so they united with Catholics and destroyed the radical Hussites at the battle of Lipany in May 1434
- The Catholic and the Hussite became legal in Bohemia and two churches were established
- 1436 Sigismund was accepted as the King of Bohemia, but he died just one year later
- Sigismund had to fight not only against the Hussites but also against the Ottoman Empire who spread into Europe from Asia Minor at the end of the 14th century firstly they attacked the Balkan Peninsula and later in 15th century they threatened Hungary

- After two weak kings from the house of Habsburgs a Bohemian nobleman and the leader of the Hussites George of Kunštát and Poděbrady (1458–1471) was elected Bohemian king
- He suggested something what could be considered as a proposal of todays European Union
- He tried to prevent isolation of hussite Bohemia in catholic Europe, so he proposed a treaty among all Christian powers, the member states should pledge to settle all differences by exclusively peaceful means and fight altogether against Ottoman Empire who was threatening Central Europe
- 1464 the new Pope Paul II asked George to leave hussite church and join the Catholic Church, but George refused → the Pope proclaimed George a heretic and excomunicated him
- He had also enemies among Bohemian catholic noblemen they allied with Matthias Corvinus of Hungary (*1443–1490)
- Matthias conquered a large part of Moravia, and in 1469 was crowned King of Bohemia by the papal party in the Moravian ecclesiastical metropolis Olomouc
- 1470 an agreement Mathias was rulling over Moravia and George over Bohemia

* Kingdom of Bohemia during the Hussite Wars

* The House of Jaggiellonians

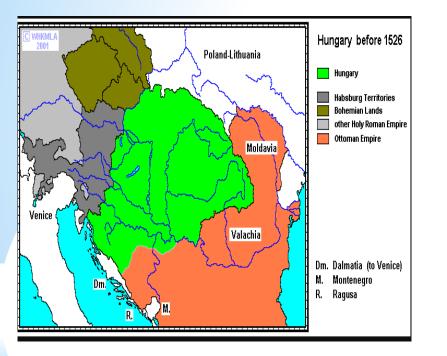

- After George's death a new dynasty from Poland (originally from Lithuania) came to the Kingdom of Bohemia Jaggiellonians
- Vladislaus II (*1456–1516)
- A conflict between Bohemian and Hungarian King succeded 1471 the Peace of Olomouc, which allowed both Vladislaus and Matthias Corvinus to use the title "King of Bohemia,, (Vladislaus would reign in Bohemia and Matthias gained Moravia, Silesia, and the two Lusatias)
- 1491 Mathias died → a personal union between Bohemia, Poland and Hungary – Vladislaus moved his capital to Buda (Hungary)
- Vladislaus was weak ruler and didn' like conflicts
- 1500 Czech Council adopted a new municipal constitution that limited royal power and Vladislaus signed it in 1502 (hence it is known as Vladislav municipal constitution)
- 1515 his daughter Anna married Ferdinand of Austria from the House of Habsburgs

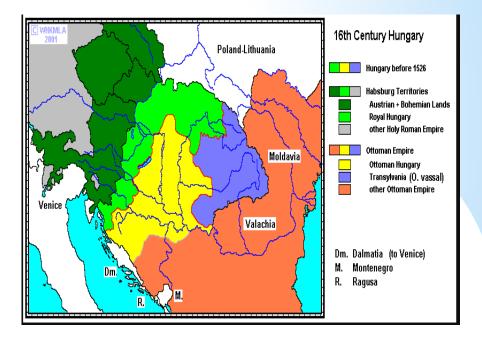

* The House of Jaggiellonians

- During their reign Hungary was under consistent border pressure from the Ottoman Empire
- Louis (Ludwig) II (*1506–1526)
- Only 10 years old when his Father died
- 1526 died at the battle of Mohács his troops were defeated by the Ottoman Empire – Sultan Suleyman the Magnificent
- The Ottoman victory led to the partition of Hungary for several centuries among the Ottoman Empire, the Habsburg Monarchy, and the Principality of Transylvania
- Because Louis II died without having any children, his succesor became his sister's husband Ferdinad of Austria
