

1 Put a/an/the or nothing in the spaces.

- 1 ___ horror films are often quite boring. At least sci-fi movies have ___ few ideas in them.
- 2 ___ brown bear may even search for ___ food in ___ towns.
- 3 All ___ votes have been counted.
- 4 If ___ opposition had won ___ election, they would have raised ___.
- 5 ___ inflation can be defined as ___ general rise in ___ prices. ___ such rises are measured by ___ cost of an agreed group of products and services over ___ period of time.
- 6 You'll see quite ___ few jobs for ___ history graduates in ___ teaching and research, and also in ___ media.
- 7 Approached by ___ tiger, we decided to stay inside ___ car.
- 8 ___ British film industry would grow into ___ major business if ___ Government gave it better ___ tax breaks.

2) Correct any mistakes.

- 1 She gave me a jumper and a scarf but the jumper is too big for me.
- 2 He's gone to shops.
- 3 The cats are more solitary than dogs.
- 4 The shirt you bought is still in a washing machine.
- 5 What's the cheese like?
- 6 What lovely day!
- 7 I don't feel great. I had a coke and a pizza for a lunch, but I think there might have been something wrong with the pizza.
- 8 We both enjoy living in country, but neither of us likes commuting every day.
- 9 Every time she sings, she turns every song into a different story!
- 10 I don't like either these paintings.
- 11 Has anyone seen my black shoes? They must be here anywhere!
- 12 Each of our rooms has flat screen TV and internet access, so guests can either work or relax. Sheets and towels are changed every two days.