

European Union Public Policy

Professor John Wilton

Lecture 14

The 'Europeanisation' of public policy

European Union Public Policy

Lecture 14

1. Structure and purpose of the course.
2. The 'Europeanisation' of Public Policy

European Union Public Policy

Lecture 14

1. Structure and purpose of the Course
 - a) Agenda-setting: fragmentation;
 - b) Policy formulation: multiple policy-making ‘venues’;
 - c) Policy decision-making: role and purpose of E.U. institutions;
 - d) Policy implementation: complex and multi-faceted

European Union Public Policy

Lecture 14

Structure v Agency
(role of institutions) (role of individuals)

Harmonisation/convergence v mutual recognition

‘Spillover’

European Union Public Policy

Lecture 14

2. 'Europeanisation' of public policy

- E.U. 'single public policy areas'?
- E.U. policies affect:
 - policy style;
 - general problem solving approach;
 - policy instruments employed;
 - policy standards set

European Union Public Policy

Lecture 14

- Europeanisation of :
 - pressure groups
 - interest groups
 - epistemic communities

European Union Public Policy

Lecture 14

4 processes of 'Europeanisation' of policy:

- a) 'bottom-up' (national state – E.U.)
- b) 'top-down' (E.U. – national state)
- c) 'horizontal' (State – State)
- d) 'round-about' (national state – E.U. – national state)

European Union Public Policy

Lecture 14

‘Europeanisation’ based on underlying E.U. principles and ‘core values’:

- social progress;
- high levels of employment;
- social protection;
- raising living standards and quality of life;
- promoting social cohesion and social justice

European Union Public Policy

Lecture 14

‘Europeanisation’

= overarching E.U. core values and principles, within which individual policies are shaped, and diversity and ‘mutual recognition’ acknowledged, particularly in implementation