Unit 1 Listening 1.1

Complete the phrases from the listening

take for	respond (how)	do
add	put sb	give
get	nod	gesture was
review	sign of	pave
schedule	wave	recognize

Article

blow sb's mind bounce ideas off sb a problem or difficulty that is likely to happen in a particular job, course of action, or activity a word made up from the first letters of the name of something such as an organization

pitfall

an expression or word used in informal conversation

do's and don'ts

an idea/phrase that has been used so much that it is not effective or does not have any meaning any longer:

colloquialism cliché

things that you should and should not do in a particular situation: to make you feel very surprised and excited by something:

acronym to talk about your ideas with someone in order to get their opinion:

jargon words/expressions used in a particular profession which are difficult for other people to understand

Qs

- 1. Why is it important to take language and cultural differences into account? (2)
- 2. Why is "business as usual" risky? (3)
- 3. Give examples of planning tips (5)
- 4. Why do you think is rehearsing a presentation useful? (6)
- 5. What might be the outcome of such rehearsal?
- 6. Give tips how to make your presentations as comprehensible as possible. (8,9)
- 7. Why should the expressions listed in paragraph 10 be avoided? (10)
- 8. How should a presenter handle questions? (11)
- 9. Why can facial expressions cause misinterpretation? Give examples. (11)

Business laioms	Complete the sentences	with appropriate idioms

and in the end decided to go ahead.	across the board ball-park figure gained ground
	in the long run
Climbing is a dangerous sport and the
The changes will affect local authorities
Moving to Spain will be better for you might recognise her from the photo.	on the ball an victory	on track for stakes are high
among academics.	track record
pressions

1 Professon Konrad profe	re to	by his first name
	rs to
Melanie thinks there are	many	when entering new markets.
Melanie is giving a		tomorrow at 5 p.m.
Konrad cannot atttend h	er seminar due to
Melanie says it is a	that both t	that both their children play basketball.
6. The topic of Melanie's p	resentations is how compar	ies adapt their culture internation	onal mergers.
	search into how internationa
	if cultural issu	es are not
8. Konrad offers Melanie h	nis	and encourages her to e-mail him if she has an	y questions about	·
9. James is Konrad's
10. Konrad is	talk in 5 minutes.
11. James asked Konrad v	vhat he		