

VB035: Session 5

Agenda

- Hot seat
- Grammar –articles, comparison, prepositions
- Listening
- Email writing – feedback
- Serious Escape Games

Survey (10 min)

Prepare presentation of your survey results for the next class:

What was the focus of your questions? Why?

What are the results? Are they significant in any way?

Constructive Feedback

- Essential to an individual's learning process.
- Provides both positive and negative aspects of a performance.
- Motivates, helps to improve and grow, guides.
- 2 steps: praise and suggest improvement
- Language: I respect ... I admire ... I like ... I appreciate
  - You could ... I wonder if ... I would like to see more ... I think you should

How to give feedback

presentation

Email of apology (60 min)

|             |  |
|-------------|--|
| Work in     | Work in pairs  |
| Start       | Start with brainstorming: email structure, semi-formal language, phrases |
| Write       | Write the email  |
| Exchange    | Exchange the email with another pair and provide feedback to the email   |
| Incorporate | Incorporate the feedback comments into the email                         |
| Hand in     | Hand in the email in the HW vault  |

Email of apology: structure

GREETINGS

INTRODUCTORY/OPENING: reason for writing, express your apology

MAIN PART: describe the problem/mistake and its consequences, explain what happened, own the mistake

REQUEST FOR ACTION: describe your plan of action

CONCLUSION/CLOSING: additional information, thanking

ENDING/SIGNING OFF

Escape game progress

Work in your project groups

One document per group

Write a short reflection on the progress of your work on your serious escape game – describe what you managed to accomplish so far and what you are planning to do in the following weeks.

HW vault

Hot Seat

Gamification

Intrinsic motivation

To conquer

simulation

skill

virtual training
environment

feedback

audience

avatar