SOCCER

- Rectangular field
- Aim to knock the ball through the opponents' goal
- US - soccer; outside the states - football - association football - abbreviation assoc. soccer (slang)

1. FIELD

- penalty areas, sidelines, end lines, corner kick quarter circles = corner arc
- a kick out of bounds over a sideline - throw-in from the spot where it left the field, use hands
- ball passes beyond an end line - a corner kick awarded to the other team

2. TEAM

- 11 players: goalkeeper
- 3-4 defenders (fullbacks)
- 3-4 midfielders (halfbacks) - link between defense and offense
- 2-4 forwards - score goals
- most common formation: 4 defenders, 4 midfielders, 2 forwards
- in the professional game a limited number of substitutes are permitted per contest and a replaced player may not reenter the game

3. OFFICIALS

- one referee, 2 linesmen (carry flags)
- ejection from the game: 2 yellow cards in one game for unbecoming conduct (the team plays a player short);
red card $=$ automatic ejection for a violent foul

4. EQUIPMENT)

- jerseys, shorts, socks, shoes with cleats (spikes)
- protection - shin guards

5. PLAY

- 90 min . in two halves, 10 min . break - halftime
- before the game the ref tosses a coin to determine the kickoff
- the team in possession of the ball advances the ball by dribbling or passing
- the defending team intercepts passes
- tie can be broken with an overtime period ( 30 min .) or a penalty kick tiebreaker ( 5 indiv. Shots)

6. INFRACTIONS

- intentional kicking, tripping or jumping at an opponent; violently charging, striking, holding, pushing, spitting at them, tackling an opponent without a ball, touching the ball with hands
- for a major foul - direct kick (may be kicked directly into the goal);
- for lesser infractions - indirect kick (must touch one other person before a goal can be scored)
- offside - a player receives a pass and there aren't at least two opponents ahead, between the player and opponents' goal line

7. SKILLS

- kicking, dribbling, passing, heading, trapping (zpracování, zastavení míče), tackling (taking the ball away from an opponent not bringing him down)
- faking
- headers

