

Video: London Air Ambulance | Londonist Ltd. | 7.19

Watch and listen to the video and answer the questions:

1. Where is the main response point of the London Air Ambulance in London (part of London, name of the building, floor)?
2. Who is normally on board of the helicopter? Who is on the roof when landing and taking off?
3. What is the doctor's specialization?
4. How many people does the service cover?
5. What is the helicopter response time?
6. Where is the daily briefing held?
7. What is the first activity of the team every day?
8. What does the team do between the responses?
9. What helicopter equipment is mentioned?
10. How is the service funded?
11. Is it difficult to fly the helicopter?
12. What are two restrictions for the helicopter operation?
13. What do they need the most?