

Video: Heart of Heathrow | Cycle Response Paramedics | 4:03

Watch and listen to the video and answer the questions:

1. How is the paramedic team at the Heathrow airport called?
2. Where does the paramedic carry all the equipment?
3. How many bags does he carry?
4. What exactly does he carry in them?
5. How many defibrillators are there at Heathrow airport?
6. How does he signal to people that he is going?
7. There are 5 Terminals at Heathrow – how many cycle response paramedics work there?
8. What kinds of problems does he treat?
9. What other vehicles support the cycle paramedics?
10. What was the last problem he treated and where was the casualty from?

1. They are called Cycle Response Unit.
2. He carries all the equipment on the back wheel.
3. He carries 3 bags.
4. He carries:
  - a full set of life-saving equipment
  - a set of diagnostic equipment
  - different fluids and dressings
  - a stethoscope
  - a pouch with different drugs
5. There are 220 defibrillators and those carried by cycle team.
6. He signals by a set of blue lights, a horn, a siren and a cycle bell
7. There are 3 altogether – 1 for Terminals 1,2,3, 1 for Terminal 4 and 1 for Terminal 5
8. They treat a wide range of medical problems – from minor injuries as slip trips for cardiac arrests, heart attacks, serious traumatic injuries
9. There is a special car with additional equipment and one ambulance
10. It was a heart attack and the man was from Syria.