

MEDICAL ENGLISH FOR EMERGENCY MEDICAL TEAM CR
TOPIC 3 – SURGERY
GRAMMAR EXERCISES

Future forms III

1. Put the words in the correct order:

1. I the difficult surgeon will be asking some questions
2. little bit probably hurt a this will
3. not feel a going to you are thing
4. up it will when you wake be over all
5. be save his able to we might life
6. am five I minutes leaving in about

2. Complete the sentences with:

(Before, then, to, soon, when, until)

1. I'll give you an anaesthetic you are in the operating theatre.
2. I want to make sure he's all right I go home.
3. Are you going..... scrub up first?
4. Very you will start to feel sleepy.
5. I won't be able to tell you anything we get the results – and evenwe may not know.

3. Put the verbs in the brackets into the correct tense using a future form:

'I have made a decision,' the surgeon, Mr Grossman, said, 'I (not operate) tomorrow. I(do) it next Tuesday. We (use) skin from his abdomen and place it over the scars. Then I (inject) steroids to soften and flatten the tissue. I am hoping that the new skin(stretch)."'..... (be) painful?' the patient's mother asked. Your son may ' (experience) some pain, yes, 'the surgeon replied. 'But that is only (be) expected. Pain is a natural part of the recovery process. Kids have remarkable powers of recovery you know. Believe me, your son is (do) just fine.'

4. Correct the mistakes in the sentences:

1. I think that one day there is a cure for cancer.
2. He may to live, but we must expect the worst.
3. We will able to see changes in his condition soon.
4. I've made an appointment and I go see the consultant next Tuesday.
5. You'll be a bit sore after the operation, but I'm sure you feel better tomorrow.