

Conditionals

If I go..., I will... / If I went..., I would...

What is the difference between the two conditionals?

Conditional 1: If I go to London, I'll visit Jenny. / If the weather is good, we can go out.

Conditional 2: If I went to London, I would visit Jenny. / If the weather was good, we could go out.

Task: Choose the best way to continue the sentences:

- a) If I live to be 80, ...
- b) If I lived to be 180, ...
- c) If I could choose my field of study again, ...
- d) If I fail some of my exams, ...
- e) If the patient doesn't comply to the treatment, ...
- f) If everyone exercised regularly, ...