

1. Which official has the final decision in matters of disputed goals?

- Referee
- Goal Judge
- Linesman
- Video Goal Judge

2. A player is allowed to direct the puck to a teammate with an open hand (a "hand pass") if:

- The pass originates in the defensive zone
- This is never allowed
- Both players are in the neutral zone
- Both players are in their defensive zone

3. If a delayed penalty is signaled by the referee and the non-offending team subsequently ices the puck, where does the face off take place?

- At the end face-off spot of the team icing the puck
- In the neutral zone near the defending blue line of the team icing the puck
- At the end zone face-off spot of the team who committed the penalty
- At center ice

4. In which of the following situations would a goal NOT be allowed?

- When the puck is deflected directly into the net off a dropped stick
- When the puck is deflected directly into the net off a teammate
- When the puck is deflected directly into the net off an official
- When the puck is deflected directly into the net off a player of the opposing team

5. A goalkeeper is not allowed to participate in the play in any manner where?

- Beyond the center red line
- Behind his own net
- Beyond the blue line indicating his defensive zone
- Inside the face-off circles

6. The 12-inch wide blue lines are considered part of what zone?

- The end zones
- Whatever zone the puck is in
- No man's land
- None - the line itself is separate from any zone

7. For a penalty to be called for slashing, the offending players stick must make contact with the opponent's body.

- True
- False

8. If a player prevents an opponent who has dropped his stick or any other piece of equipment from regaining possession of it, what is the proper penalty?

- Holding
- Unsportsmanlike conduct
- Interference
- Misconduct

9. A team has two players serving penalties. A third player is subsequently called for a penalty. What happens?

- The player goes to the penalty box, a substitute takes his place on the ice, and his penalty time begins immediately
- The player goes to the penalty box, a substitute takes his place on the ice, and his penalty time does not begin until one of the other penalties expires
- The player goes to the penalty box, the team's numerical strength is further reduced by one, and his penalty time begins immediately
- The other team is awarded a penalty shot

10. The signal given for a misconduct penalty is:

- Both hands on hips
- One arm raised
- Making a "T" sign with the hands
- Palm of hand on head