

Tennis vocabulary

Supply the correct solution and its Czech equivalent:

Another word for tie in tennis:

What follows after the score is 6-6:

When you toss the ball into the air and strike it is:

The serve that touches the net:

A valid serve not reached by the opponent:

The situation in which the player strikes the ball before landing:

Hitting the ball high and deep into the opponent's court to force the opponent to retreat:

A fault caused by the server stepping across his base line or the center line before striking the ball:

Hitting a fault on the second service:

A serve that is touched by the opponent, but not returned: