Preferences of online communication

- World Internet Project: Worldwide project based on a long-term study examining the influence of the Internet on the individual, family and society.
- Representative samples
- Here: data from the Czech Republic from years 2005 to 2014, samples 1500 and more respondents
- 2005 - 2008 – Masaryk University, David Smahel
- 2014 - Charles University, Petr Lupac

Preferences of Online Communication

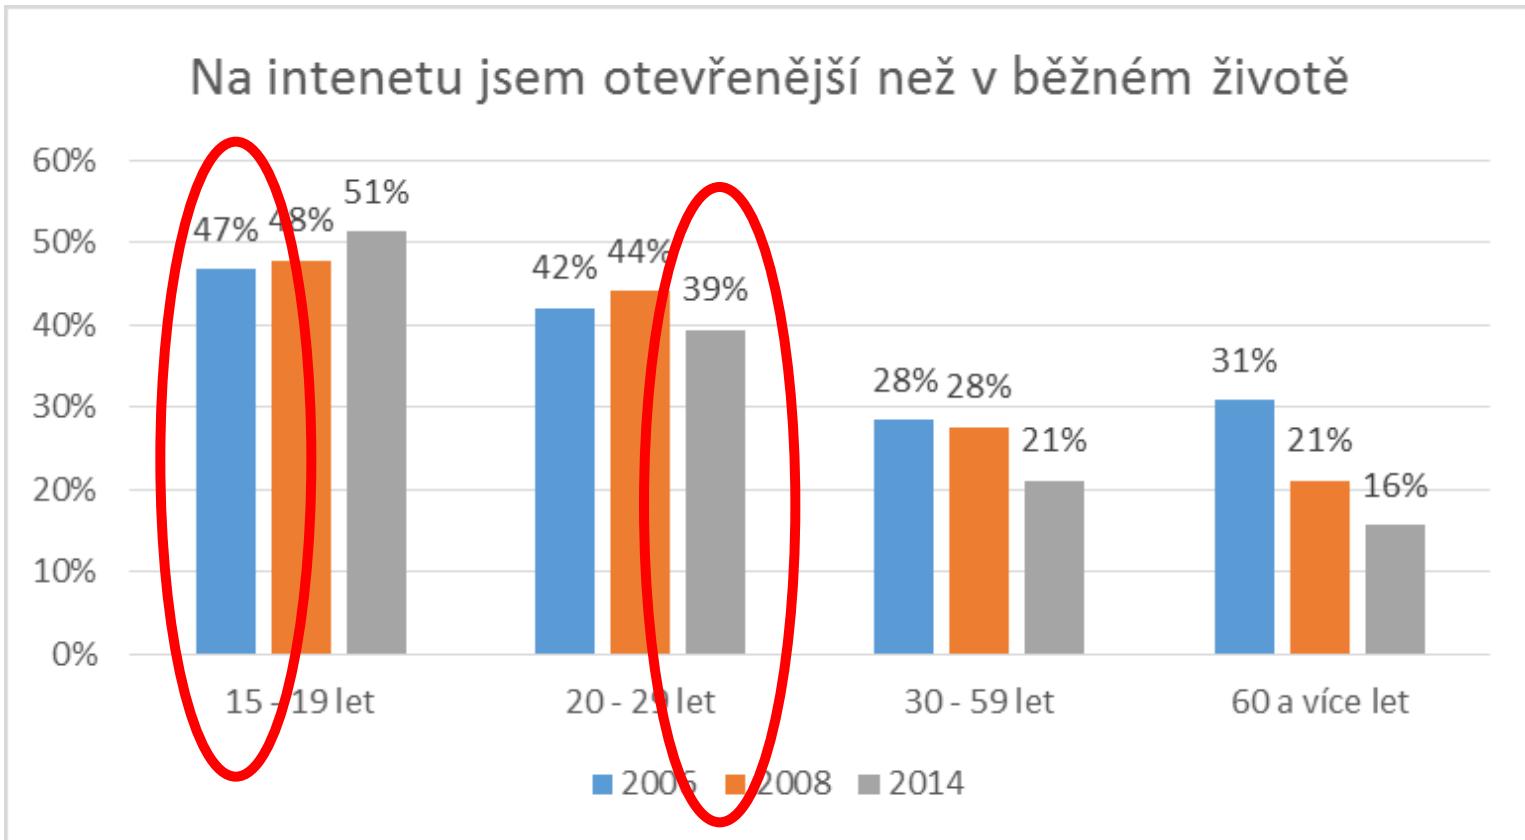

[I am more open on the Internet than in real life]

2006 -> Internet Generation!?

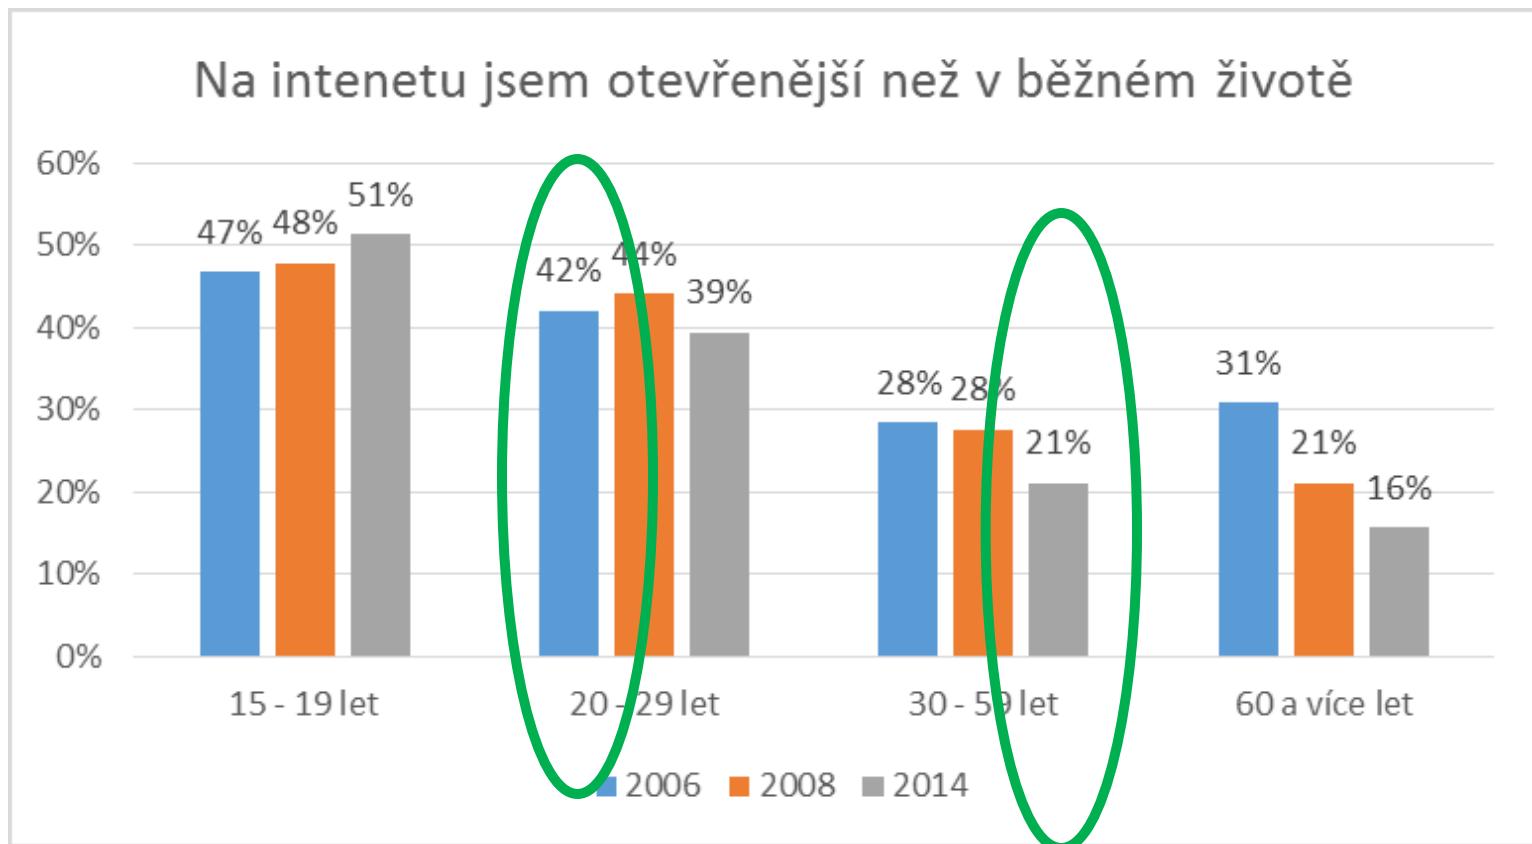

Preferences: trends 2006 - 2014

Preferences of online communication (score 1 to 4)

Virtual Generation does not exist ...

- Preferences of online communication for youngest generation 15 to 19 years remains similar after 8 years
 - Mostly slight decrease of online communication preferences for generations 20 to 59 years
- > Developmental differences are stable !
- > It seems there is nothing like “Internet generation”
- ... ☺ or ☹ ?

But WHY? What are other factors?
