Task 4

So, that's all I have planned to say about the topic. Let me summarize the main issues. Very briefly there are four. First, I spoke about the preparation phase, where it's very important to determine the aim and its relevance to the audience; secondly, the use of sign-posting language, which is used to provide optimal orientation; and lastly, the actual delivery, where it's good to think about your voice and body language. I'd like to conclude by emphasizing that many presentations could be greatly improved by providing the audience with a meaningful concluding statement that stresses the position of the speaker on the topic. I suggest we start the discussion, but before we begin, let me thank you for your attention. I'd be glad to answer any questions now.

The green section is an example of sign-posting. The yellow section is an example of a summary. The pink section is a concluding (thesis) statement that emphasizes the most important and main idea of the presentation. The blue section consists of closing statements.
