

Writing violence essay

Answer only one question

Important: your answer should not be more than 7 pages, font size 12, times new romance, A4, 1.5 line and paragraph space

Submission: On or before the 20th of December 2022

Information on Frontpage: Subject code, Name of the student, UCO

Naming the file: name your file by using the UCO number. Eg. Uco511822

Plagiarism: maintain academic integrity, you will be penalized for plagiarism

Question 01:

Read the article: GANDHI'S LEGACY OF NON-VIOLENCE: A BRIEF STUDY, and answer the question given below

How do you evaluate Gandhi's nonviolent movement as a philosophy of life and non-violent technique?

You are free to decide the structure of your essay. However, you may consider the following points when you develop the text

- Introduction to Gandhi's non-violence concept
- Its major principles
- Non-violence as a moral philosophy about life
- Non-violence as a technique or method of self-regulation and violent impulses
- The usefulness of being nonviolent in our everyday life (you can think of your examples/experiences)
- Conclusion to the essay

Note: in addition to the given text, you would read additional texts that may increase your essay's richness. However, if you use additional readings, please cite them properly. (Marks 50)

Question 02:

Read chapter 11, titled Toward Violence Prevention of the book 'Violence the Enduring Problem' by Alvarez & Bachman and answer the following question

Design a program to combat a type of violence of your choice that will include elements of both primary and secondary prevention.

Key points

- Introduction to the type of violence you selected
- What factors of your program are directed toward primary prevention?
- What factors are directed toward secondary prevention?
- What elements could you add to the program that would provide tertiary prevention?
- Conclusion

(Marks 50)