

State Liability for Breach of EC Law by Courts
Masaryk University, Law Faculty, Jan M. Passer

Damages as a Remedy
Infringement Procedure
21. 4. 08

In the first part of the seminar, the concept of state liability for damages for breach of EC law by courts will be discussed.

Students are expected to be familiar with basic case law of the ECJ related to the concept of state liability for damages for breach of EC law (i.e. C-6 and 9/90, Francovich; C-46 and 48/93, Brasserie du Pêcheur, Factortame III; C-5/94, Hedley Lomas; C-392/93, British Telecommunications; C-178, 179, 188-190/94, Dillenkofer). References to these cases might occur during the seminar and these references are also expected from students during the discussion.

Cases that will be discussed in the first part of the seminar are C-224/01, Gerhard Köbler v Republik Österreich and C-173/03, Traghetti del Mediterraneo SpA, in liquidation v Republicca Italiana (including opinions of advocate general).

The second part of the seminar will relate to the infringement procedure (art. 226 EC) for a failure to fulfil obligations in the case of courts. A case C-129/00, Commission of the EC v. Republicca Italiana, will be discussed in this part of the seminar.
