MASARYK UNIVERSITY FACULTY OF LAW

Article 45

- 1. Freedom of movement for workers shall be secured within the Union.
- 2. Such freedom of movement shall entail the abolition of any discrimination based on nationality between workers of the Member States as regards employment, remuneration and other conditions of work and employment
- 3. It shall entail the right, subject to limitations justified on grounds of public policy, public security or public health:

(a) to accept offers of employment actually made;

(b) to move freely within the territory of Member States for this purpose;

(c) to stay in a Member State for the purpose of employment in accordance with the provisions governing the employment of nationals of that State laid down by law, regulation or administrative action;

(d) to remain in the territory of a Member State after having been employed in that State, subject to conditions which shall be embodied in regulations to be drawn up by the Commission.

4. The provisions of this Article shall not apply to employment in the public service.

Legal Regulation of Free Movement of Persons

Secondary Law:

- Directive of the European Parliament and of the Council 2004/38 of 29 April 2004 on the rights of citizens of the Union and their family members to move and reside within the territory of the Member States, replaced legislation from 1960s
- Regulation (EU) 492/2011 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 5 April 2011 on freedom of movement for workers within the Union, replaced Regulation of the Council 1612/68 of 15 October 1968 of free movement of workers within the Community

Personal Scope of Application of Freedom of Movement for Persons

- Citizens of the Union
- Their family members
  - 1. Spouse
  - 2. The partner with whom the Union citizen has contracted a registered partnership on the basis of the legislation of a Member State, if the legislation of the host Member State treats registered partnership as equivalent to marriage and in accordance with the conditions laid down in the relevant legislation of the host Member State
  - 3. The direct descendants who are under the age of 21 or are dependants and those of the spouse or partner
  - 4. The dependant direct relatives in the ascending line and those of the spouse and partner

Free movement of persons includes:

- Right to leave the territory of the Member State
- Right to entry on the territory of another Member State
- Right to move within the territory of another Member State
- Right to stay within the territory of another Member State
