Spring semester: Instructions and useful information

ATTENDANCE

- attendance on the practical courses is obligatory, without 100% attendance will credits not be given
    - the absence will be excused because of illness or because of other serious reasons declared to Office of International Studies and documented in IS
- absence WILL NOT BE EXCUSED due to exam or test from other courses
- late arrivals for classes will be signed to students' cards, if student will be late for class for 3 or more times, there will be a detailed oral examination from all spring semester topics before credits will be given

TESTS

- to pass the test at least 60% of total score must be reached
- the test can be repeated only two times
- Test No. 1: Thursday: Pharmacologic terminology, basic calculations, Latin terminology (translation of 3 phrases), basis of prescription and drug dosage forms

    1. Prescription 1x RMP
        - classification passed/failed
    Prescription 1x IPP
        - classification passed/failed

    2. 3 questions on Latin terminology + prescription abbreviations + 1 question related to the general rules for drug prescription
    - both prescription and theory must be classified as passed
- Test No. 2: Friday: questions from the topics covered in the Monday to Thursday - 15 question multiple-choice, limit 8pts

GETTING READY FOR NEXT LESSON

- students are advised to prepare for the practical courses with regard to information in the syllabus
- students who are not sufficiently prepared will not be allowed to participate in the lesson

TEXTBOOKS AND OTHER LEARNING MATERIALS

- Lectures – the attendance is recommended due to interconnection with practical courses!!
- Rang and Dale's Pharmacology, 8th edition
- Lippincott's Illustrated Pharmacology, 6th edition
- textbook Practicals in Pharmacology (www.is.muni.cz)
- study materials for single lessons in IS course code ZLFA0621c Pharmacology I practical courses

CREDITS

- requirements: 100% attendance + at least 60% points from single tests
- will not be given before 23.5.2016