

List of tasks

1. Mock test I.

You find out your knowledge and skills in taught topics. Result has no influence on evaluation.

2. Searching for a book in a library catalogue

3. Evaluating an internet resource

You search for scholarly web page relevant to your field of study and write down why the content is reliable and credible.

4. Searching in a scientific database

You learn how to search in scientific journal databases. You set the query with key words and search for articles/documents relevant to the topic.

5. Searching for fulltext

You find fulltext of a journal article in a database accessible in Masaryk University network.

6. Detection of plagiarism

You find signs of plagiarism in a short scholarly text.

7. Comparing journals by scientometric indicators

You decide which journal is superior in quality in context of scientometric indicators (impact factor etc.).

8. Mock test II.

You find out your knowledge and skills after the course. Result has no influence on evaluation.