

Class II. Feedback modifications

1. When do we use composite filling materials in class II.?
2. Describe differences between the slot cavity for composite and for amalgam
3. Cavity for composite filling material and amalgam differences
  - Conventional cavity
  - Slot cavity
4. Which matrices can be used for composite material?
5. Describe the placement of composite filling material in class II.
6. Making composite filling – step by step
7. How do we protect the dentin wound using composite filling materials?
8. Are there any indications for glass ionomer in class II?
9. What is inlay?
10. Classification of inlays:

11. Which materials can be used for fabrication of inlays?

12. Describe differences between the cavity inlay and for amalgam

13. Indications for composite and for amalgam in class II.

14. Where do we bevel the enamel using composite fillings in class II.

15. What is tunnel preparation?