

Preclinical dentistry questions - part I. – operative dentistry, practical.

A.

1. Class II. cavity preparation (MO) in mandibular premolar (base, amalgam filling).
2. Class II. Cavity preparation (MOD) in mandibular premolar (base, amalgam filling).
3. Class II. Cavity preparation MO in mandibular molar (base, amalgam filling).
4. Class II.(MOD) in mandibular molar (base, amalgam filling).
5. Class II.(OD) in mandibular molar (base, amalgam filling).
6. Class V. cavity preparation for composit, filling, discussion of matrices and other filling materials.
7. Class I. Cavity preparation, base, amalgam filling, discussion od other materials.
8. Class III. for composites, filling
9. Class IV. – preparation and filling

B.

1. Opening of the pulp chamber.
2. Reaming action, filling.
3. Canal shaping using circumferential filling.
4. Canal shaping using balanced force technique.

C. Tooth identification

All students bring for this part of the exam premolar and molar, endodontic instruments and 1 non used clear resin block. Without these student will not be admitted to the exam.