

Dental materials for the credit test and the exam

The study material is Craig's restorative dental materials or similar book.

For the prosthetic part you must know:

Gypsum products and investments.

Impression materials and techniques:

Alginates, Elastomeric impression materials, methods of taking impressions, occlusal registration materials, edentulous impression techniques

Waxes.

Casting and soldering techniques.

For restorative part:

Amalgam, composites, cements. Root canal filling materials. Bonding agents.