

List of tasks

1. Mock test I.

You test your knowledge and skills in taught topics. Result has no influence on evaluation.

2. Searching for a book in a library catalogue

You find out a shelf number of a concrete book in the MU library catalogue.

3. Evaluating an internet resource

You search for one scholarly web page relevant to your field of study and write down why the content is reliable and credible.

4. Searching in a scientific database

You learn how to search in scientific journal databases. You set the query with key words and search for articles/documents relevant to the topic.

5. Searching for fulltext

You find fulltext of a journal article in a database accessible in Masaryk University network.

6. Detection of plagiarism

You find signs of plagiarism in a short scholarly text.

7. Creating bibliography in the EndNoteWeb

You generate a list of bibliographies in the EndNoteWeb reference manager.

8. Comparing journals by scientometric indicators

You decide which journal is superior in quality in context of scientometric indicators (impact factor etc.). This task is voluntary.

9. Mock test II.

You test your knowledge and skills after the course. Result has no influence on evaluation.