

Examples of the questions in the credit test:

1. Describe the sequence of the adhesive procedure using two steps adhesive system.
2. Name the components of the adhesive system.
3. How do you recognize that you applied the adhesive system correctly?
4. What is the purpose of using the flowables?
5. Which impression techniques is recommended for inlays?
6. Perform the management of postoperative sensitivity
7. Classify the glass ionomer cements
8. What is mock up and when is it recommended?
9. Indications of preventive filling are:
10. What is tunnel preparation and which limits does it have?
11. Describe the sequence of operation by making the cervical filling of the light curing composite
12. Describe the possible negative consequences of polymerization stress and shrinkage.
13. How do you recognize clinically the cracks in enamel and around the filling
14. Which factors can cause the postoperative sensitivity?
15. Explain the mechanism of the postoperative sensitivity and the treatment strategy
16. How the inner surface of inlay can be treated before the adhesive cementation?
17. When can we cause the cuspal deflection
18. How do you find cracks in hard dental tissues? Are there any clinical symptoms?
19. Perform the management of dentin hypersensitivity.
20. Perform the management of dental erosion.
21. Describe the picture (radiogram), state the working diagnosis and suggest the therapy .