

Practical Language Grammar Practice

From pages 114-115 (uses of HAVE)

Which of the following sentences is a result or an arrangement?

Tell them that story and you'll have them laughing in no time.
I need to find someone to look after my dog while I am on holiday.

If you had a problem identifying the first sentence as a result and the second as the arrangement, please reread the grammar box on page 115. There will be a couple of examples on the test like exercise 6 on page 114.

This is the only other grammar point that we have covered in this VOCabulary heavy unit.

WHATEVER - WHENEVER you do, I'll always be by your side.

WHICHEVER - WHOEVER job you take, it will be a step forward to your professional success.

WHEREVER - HOWEVER I go, I see him.

WHOEVER - WHENEVER calls today, tell him/her that I am sick.

WHENEVER - WHOEVER I go on vacation, I always go to the beach.

HOWEVER - HOWEVER long it takes, I'll be waiting for you here...

Answers: 4. who 3. wherever 5. when 1. what 2. which