

Waldorf Education

“Wisdom of The Human Being”

Sketch of Rudolf Steiner lecturing at East-West Conference, Vienna, 1917.

Rudolf Steiner

■ Born 1861 Kraljevec, Austria – March 30, 1925

■ Steiner grew up in 11 villages in Lower Austria

■ His modern education was at Neustadt

■ He received degrees in mathematics, chemistry and technical University

■ Respected as a philosopher

■ Edited Goethe

Goethaenum

“House of Humanity”

In 1913, Steiner had opened his Goethaenum,

The Center of the Anthroposophical Society

First was destroyed due to arson

Waldorf Astoria Cigarette Factory

1919 Emil Molt

- ❖ Wanted his employees children to receive a “different” education
- ❖ Due to the war, Emil Molt knew change would be inevitable
- ❖ He asked Rudolf Steiner to found a school

Die Frei Waldorfschule'

 *Rudolf Steiner
accepted Emil Molts offer to form a different education*

-  *It was to be open to all children
regardless of wealth*
-  To be a place where teachers and students were equals
-  It was to be free of political control

Anthroposophy

Steiner Philosophy

- Heredity, Environment and The Self
- Spirit, Soul and Body
- Viewing the human being
- Stages of Life

*Receive the children in reverence,
"The need for imagination, a sense
Educate them in love, of truth and a feeling of responsibility – these are the three forces which are the very nerve of education."*

Rudolf Steiner
Rudolf Steiner

Today's Waldorf Schools

In the Class Room

The Teachers

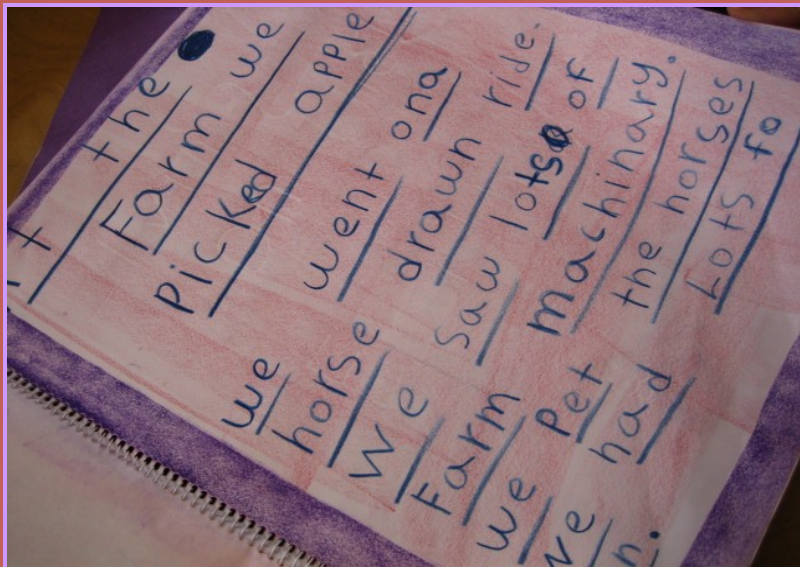

From 1st grade till 8th grade

Reading and writing

What grade it begins

Coloring and Decorating the Rooms

The reason for different colors

Learning Blocks

What is incorporated into a Learning Block

Main lesson

■ Songs, Plays

■ Mythology, religion

■ Eurythmy

■ Olympics, circus, games with little competition

■ Language

■ German

■ Hand Work and Art

■ Crocheting, shade drawing

■ Woodland walks (Nature walks)

■ Climbing, playing, building, searching

■ Field Trips

■ Local Farms, Germany, Spain, New York

■ Reading, Math, Science, History

Research

- Jack Petrass: Understanding Waldorf Education; Teaching From the Inside Out
- Scientist of the Invisible Rudolf Steiner, Biography by A.P Shepherd United
- Child Development and Curriculum in Waldorf Education; States Department of Education, Educational Resources Information Center

www.steinercollege.org/rs.html

A

G R E T C H E N

Production

Sketch of Rudolf Steiner lecturing at East-West Conference, Vienna, 1967