

Teaching of gifted and talented students

Have a look at the two presentations in IS and please answer these questions:

- Have you ever taught someone highly gifted? If you have, what were your impressions? How did you work with them?

- Which of the ideas mentioned in the presentation do you find especially useful when working with these students? Would you like to add any tips?