Examples of tasks in the test:

The best time to introduce some sort of simple grammar to young learners is
1.	8 - 1 - 2
2.	T
3.	at the end of the lesson
4.	at any time in the lesson
5.	when a pupil asks for an explanation.
Which
a)	Five and six year olds are often not willing to share.
b)	Seven to ten year olds are often not willing to share.
Do Scott and Ytreberg say the following about topic-based work?
Yes/No.
a)	With topic-base work the content becomes more important than the language itself.	1
b)	Topic-based work does not allow you to go into a subject in depth.	1 c)
d)	The amount of time that you spend on a topic is limited in the lesson.
Add th	e third stage of planning:
a)	long term planning
b)	short term planning Individual lesson planning
c)

Solution:

The be	st time to introduce some sort of simple grammar to young	5
learne	rs is
	at the beginning of the lesson
6.	after a warm-up activity in the lesson
7.	at the end of the lesson
8.	at any time in the lesson
5.	when a pupil asks for an explanation.
Which	is wrong?	В
b)	Five and six year olds are often not willing to share.
b)	Seven to ten year olds are often not willing to share.
Do Scott and Ytreberg say the following about topic-based work?		A Yes
Yes/No.		B No
d)	With topic-base work the content becomes more important than	C Yes
	the language itself.	D No
e)	Topic-based work does not allow you to go into a subject in depth.
f)	The children can associate words, functions, structures and situations with a particular topic.
d)	The amount of time that you spend on a topic is limited in the
lesson.
Add the third stage of planning:		Individual lesson
c)	long term planning	planning
d)	short term planning Individual lesson planning
c)		