

Foley & Hall (2003): Longman Advanced Learners' Grammar

1 31.1

Match each headline (1-10) with a sentence (A-J). Then write one sentence containing a relative clause (defining or non-defining) to combine each headline and sentence that accompanies it. Use the present perfect tense in the main clause.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 0 SCIENTISTS DISCOVER NEW WONDER-CURE FOR CANCER | A He was disgraced in a financial scandal. |
| 1 BODY OF MAN FOUND IN RIVER SEVERN | B They were spoiled in the recent US presidential election. |
| 2 FASHION ICON QUANT LEAVES BUSINESS | C His contract with Ferrari finishes at the end of the season. |
| 3 GLOBAL WARMING CONFERENCE ENDS WITHOUT AGREEMENT | D It was held in The Hague. |
| 4 IRVINE NARROWLY MISSES FORMULA 1 WORLD CHAMPION TITLE | E She shares the house with her British husband, Guy Ritchie. |
| 5 HAND COUNT OF VOTES CONTINUES | F It was in danger of closing through lack of funds. |
| 6 LONDON ZOO REMAINS OPEN | G She refused to diet to a size 12. |
| 7 POLITICIAN HANDS IN RESIGNATION | H The man jumped off the Severn Bridge. |
| 8 SIZE 16 MODEL WINS NEW ESTÉE LAUDER CONTRACT | I They have been studying cancer genes for years. |
| 9 MADONNA'S UK HOME BURGLED | J She is famous for inventing the mini-skirt. |

- 0 Scientists (I) who have been studying cancer genes for years have just discovered a new wonder-cure for cancer.
- 1 The body of a man
- 2 The fashion icon Mary Quant
- 3 The global warming conference
- 4 Formula 1 driver Eddie Irvine
- 5 The hand count of votes
- 6 London Zoo
- 7 The politician
- 8 The size 16 model
- 9 Madonna's house in the UK