Listening

I have no difficulty in understanding any kind of spoken language, whether live or broadcast, even when delivered at fast native speed, provided I have some time to get familiar with the accent.

Reading

I can recognise plays on words and appreciate texts whose real meaning is not explicit (for example irony, satire).

I can understand texts written in a very colloquial style and containing many idiomatic expressions or slang.

I can grasp fine stylistic differences and implicit meanings in articles and books.

I can understand manuals, regulations and contracts even within unfamiliar fields.

I can understand contemporary and classical literary texts of different genres (poetry, prose, drama).

I can read texts such as literary columns or satirical glosses where much is said in an indirect and ambiguous way and which contain hidden value judgements.

I can recognise different stylistic means (puns, metaphors, symbols, connotations, ambiguity) and appreciate and evaluate their function within the text.

Spoken Interaction

I can take part effortlessly in all conversations and discussions with native speakers.

Spoken Production

I can summarise orally information from different sources, reconstructing arguments and accounts in a coherent presentation. I can present ideas and viewpoints in a very flexible manner in order to give emphasis, to differentiate and to eliminate ambiguity.
