

VII ADVERBS

Put in the missing adjectives and adverbs. Add -ly or make other changes where you need. beautiful, best (twice), careful, cheap, early, far, fast, full, hurried, important, last, new, past, quick, rapid, silly

1) Last Thursday I had an 2) important interview for a job. I got up 3) early and dressed 4) carefully. I put on my 5) best jacket and trousers, to look my 6) best. I had to travel by train so I walked to the station which isn't 7) far from my house. I was walking quite 8) fast when I saw a man just ahead painting his fence with red paint. He didn't notice me as I walked 9) past. Then he turned suddenly and splashed my 10) beautiful trousers! He had acted 11) in a silly way/manner/fashion and he apologised, but the damage was done. There was a big store on the corner, so I decided to buy a new pair 12) quickly. I could change on the train. I 13) rapidly found a nice pair, which I bought quite 14) cheap/cheaply. The shop was 15) full, so I paid 16) hurriedly, grabbed my shopping-bag and left. On the train, I went to the toilet to change. I took off my stained trousers and threw them out of the window. Then I opened the bag to get my 17) new ones, but all I found was a pink woollen sweater!

Choose the right adverb in each sentence.

- 1 I'm sure the boss thinks very (high, highly) of you.
- 2 I don't think you were treated very (just, justly).
- 3 If you want to succeed, you should aim (high, highly).
- 4 I (near, nearly) fell off the edge of the platform!

Put in already, immediately, this week, still, then, yesterday, yet. Use each word once only.

This week there's going to be a festival of British Food and Farming in Hyde Park in London. The festival hasn't begun yet and farmers are still bringing their animals. But a pig farmer has already run into a serious problem. Yesterday he arrived with his pigs from the Welsh Hills - hundred of miles away. The pigs were very thirsty when they arrived in Hyde Park and the farmer immediately gave them some London water. Then he got a big surprise because the pigs refused to drink the water. London water is fit for humans but not for pigs!

Komentář [RH1]: Chybí v handoutech.

Put in during, in, by, till, since, for or ago.

I moved to this area seven years ago. For years I have had noisy neighbours. Ever since I moved into this flat, I've had to put up with noise during (or in) the night. I decided I'd had enough and I've been looking for a new flat since the beginning of the year. I haven't found anything till now. Every week I go to the local estate agent's office, but it's the same story. "I might have something by the end of the week," he says, or, "Wait till next week. I think I might have a few flats by then." I've seen a few flats during my search, but I don't like any of them. One flat I saw has been empty for two years. "It's got a busy road on one side and a railway on the other!" I exclaimed. "I want peace and quiet." Last week I visited the agent again. "I won't leave till you show me something," I said. He smiled and said. "I've got just the flat for you." I went to see it and I was horrified. "But it's next to a cemetery!" I cried. "But you won't have noisy neighbours," my agent said. "It's ideal for peace and quiet!"
