Siamese twins, collocations

Conjunction

The most common conjunctions used in a phrase that constitutes Siamese twins are and or or.

With "and" as the conjunction

Adjectives

- alive and kicking
- black and white
- clean and tidy
- cute and cuddly
- drawn and quartered
- hard and fast
- hot and cold
- loud and clear
- old and new
- pure and simple
- said and done
- sick and tired
- thick and thin

Adverbs

- by and large
- far and wide
- here and there
- in and out
- once and for all
- to and fro
- up and down
- yes and no

Nouns

- apples and oranges
- bells and whistles
- bits and bobs
- bow and arrow
- boys and girls
- bread and butter
- cap and gown

- cat and mouse
- cats and dogs
- fish and chips
- flesh and blood
- hammer and sickle
- heaven and hell
- king and queen
- knife and fork
- ladies and gentlemen
- law and order
- man and wife
- meat and potatoes
- milk and honey
- mum and dad
- nook and cranny
- nuts and bolts
- odds and ends
- peace and quiet
- peas and carrots
- pros and cons
- salt and pepper
- skin and bone
- song and dance
- spick and span
- supply and demand
- thunder and lightning
- tooth and nail
- trial and error
- ways and means
- wine and roses

Verbs

- meet and greet
- read and write
- stop and go
- touch and go

With "or" or "nor" as the conjunction

Adjectives

• more or less

Adverbs

- sooner or later
- yes or no
- neither here nor there*

Determiners

• all or nothing

Nouns

- day or night
- neither love nor money*/love or money
- rain or shine
- fight or flight

Verbs

- do or die
- kill or cure
- make or break
- sink or swim

Predicates

• take it or leave it

Other

- no ifs, ands, or buts
- 'one way or another