

1. Complete the table using the words listed below.

neutral	formal	informal
sunglasses	offspring
policeman/woman	police officer	broolly
make sure	repast

• u

2. Select the most suitable collocation in these sentences. The word you choose should have the approximate meaning given in brackets.

.A (quick and energetic) walk before breakfast helps to (increase, make stronger) the appetite.

- The death
- in the earthquake has now risen to 20,000. (number or total)
- Let's take a
- stroll along the beach, shall we? (slow and not energetic)
- If you want to stay at home tonight, that's
- OK with me. (completely, 100%)
- My aunt
- £20,000 in her will to cancer research, (gave after her death)
- If I remember
- she had two brothers, both older than her. (correctly)
- If you want information about the publisher of this book, you can
- their website at www.cambridge.org (consult, look at).
- Eating all those peanuts has spoiled-lowered my appetite. I don't feel like dinner now. (destroyed, decreased)

3. Match each adjective on the left with the two nouns it best collocates with

Country, delay, mistake, income, knives and forks, expression, criminal, expression, glove, dish, problems, speech, food, story, drinks, personality, room, booth, economy, illness, mistake

additive-free avoidable disposable guilt-ridden high-minded newsworthy oil-rich ovenproof soundproof stress-related

4. Circle the correct word

1. He was continually/continously complaining about something or other.
2. The signal/sign changed to green and the train moved away from the station.

5. Some words are not used correctly or in their usual way. Correct them.

1. My boss rose my salary with 2000 crowns a month. I was delighted.
2. I am underpaid and overworked, like anybody! And I'm always streded up.
3. He got maternity leave when his wife had a baby.

6. Fill the gap:

Sheila and I have always got like a house.....

Now complete these sentences which include words from the table above, using the correct preposition.

1. She's absolutely devoted her mother and visits her every day.
2. I've always had a lot of respect my boss, and I do enjoy my job a lot.
3. She's been so loyal me all these years, I can't let her down now.
4. He's very supportive his colleagues; they're very lucky.
5. I'm quite fond Larry, but that doesn't mean I want to marry him.
6. He puts a lot of trust me, and I feel I can trust him too.