

A SOCIOPATH'S JOB INTERVIEW

TL Well, Barbara, I have to say... a hugely impressive CV.

AP Thank you.

LV We've seen a lot of candidates ... amongst the most impressive.

AP Thanks. Project management ... a lot of experience with team leadership.

LV There was just one thing on it ... crimes against humanity.

AP I decided to leave that off the CV ... to be honest with people.

TL Honest?

AP Well, in the sense that ... two years.

M So, what are the details?

AP Of the – what – CAH?

M Yes.

AP Well, I was convicted about two years ago ... that's about it, really.

M Was it a genocide or something?

AP It was a genocide, yes.

M So – how many people would have died?

AP The U.N. reckons about 15 thousand... more like 20, maybe 30.

M And what was your role in this?

AP Largely organisational ... terms, I was very successful.

LV Did you try to stop the genocide at any stage?

AP I did try to stop it... easier to go along with it.

LT Yes, I'm just – I was looking up... slavery and cannibalism.

AP Guilty as charged!

LV And the sentence for CAH was in your absence?

AP Yes. I wasn't in court and again... it was 25 years.

M And you're on the run now, are you?

AP Yeah.

M OK. I think we're all agreed... hugely impressive CV.

LV Yes, it's definitely the best we've seen.

LT Yes, I think... Welcome to the bank!

AP Thank you.
