

Shakespeare in Central Europe after 1989: common heritage and regional identity

Visegrad Fund project ID: 21920060
Project Output 3: Online Symposium 18-19 March, 2021

Symposium Programme

Thursday, March 18

15:00-15:15	Opening ceremony – Introducing the project	Nicoleta Cinpoes, Zsolt Almási
15:15-16:30	About the volume Roundtable discussion Authors/participants	Respondents: Veronika Schandl, Madalina Nicolaescu Moderator: Jacek Fabiszak
16:30-16:45	Coffee break
16:45-17:45	Part I: Raising the (Iron) Curtain: the Heritage of 1989 in the New Europe Roundtable discussion Authors/participants: Anna Cetera-Włodarczyk, Nicoleta Cinpoes, Natália Pikli, Péter P. Müller, George Volceanov	Respondents Márkus Zoltán Dr Katy (Kirilka) Stavreva Moderator: Kinga Földvály
17:45-18:00	Closing session, practicalities about the streamed theatre performance: Éva Enyedi: Lear's Death (dir. Keszég László, National Theatre of Miskolc)	Zsolt Almási, Kinga Földvály

Friday, March 19

15:00-15:30	Roundtable about the performance of Lear's death (National Theatre Miskolc) with dramatist Éva Enyedi and László Keszég director	Moderator: Zsolt Almási
15:30-16:30	Part II: (E)Merging Practices in Post-1989 Central European Theatre(s) Roundtable discussion Authors/participants: Kornélia Deres, Jacek Fabiszak, Anna Kowalcze-Pawlik, Ivona Mišterová, Gabriella Reuss	Respondents: Francesca Rayner, Tamás Jászay Moderator: Anna Cetera-Włodarczyk
16:30-16:45	Coffee break
16:45-17:45	Part III: Performing Power and Identity	Respondents:

	Roundtable discussion Authors/participants: Zsolt Almási, Kinga Földváry, Šárka Havlíčková Kysová, Jana Wild	Ágnes Matuska, Amira Alouri, Natalia Khomenko, Radka Kunderová Moderator: Natália Pikli
17:45-18:15	Roundtable about the performance of Shakespeare's The Tempest with Rémusz Szikszai, director Closing ceremony Practicalities about the streamed theatre performance, Shakespeare: The Tempest (dir. Rémusz Szikszai, Puppet Theatre, Budapest)	Moderator Gabriella Reuss Closing ceremony: Jana Wild