

Unit 6

The construction commenced in spring, however not much was build until autumn. Those jeans were sent to him by his uncle from Ireland. I have bought a similar pair in Prior. When I got there, they were already sold out. He is rarely seen here. There was a loud noise to be heard before midnight. Motorcycle was driven by a youth, who borrowed it from his friend. It was thought trough very carefully. Money spent on books is money well spent. They let me go and haven't said a thing. He flew to England in April and came back in September.

To stop in a common room. To turn up. To make an acquaintance at the dorm. A close friend. To feel lonely. To neglect a girlfriend. To broke up with a gril. Sit next to someone. To offer someone company. Engaged in lively conversation. To lose. To win a championship. To concentrate on a game of chess. To avoid check-mate. To threaten an opponent. To end in a draw. To lust for victory. To learn playing chess for someone. To be interested in board games. To have favorite singers. To be a music authority. To disagree with some one's lecture. I heard rumours that. To put her all the blame. He bores me greatly. He reproaches me constantly. To be desperate. To have a breakdown. He will get through it. To be rooting for someone. To comfort someone. Better for us then. Grumpy. Conceited. Funny. Sensible.