

AJ52017 MINITALK TOPICS

- 1 The difference between phonetics and phonology
- 2 The history of studying the sound form of language
- 3 Practical applications of phonetics and phonology
- 4 English segmental phonetics: classification of vowels
- 5 English segmental phonetics: classification of consonants
- 6 Aspects of coarticulation: assimilation, elision, liaison
- 7 English suprasegmental phonetics: the rules of English stress and rhythm
- 8 Articulatory settings in English, Czech and Slovak
- 9 Main pronunciation problems of Czech and Slovaks
- 10 Goals in teaching pronunciation
- 11 The use of standard or non-standard accents in teaching
- 12 The use of music in teaching
- 13 The use of sitcoms and films in teaching
- 14 Classification of accents according to Trudgill
- 15 EE accents - standard, England, Aus and NZ, SA, Africa, Asia
- 16 RP innovations
- 17 AmE accents - standard, the U.S., the Carribean, Asia-Pacific
- 18 Second language varieties
- 19 Labov's research
- 20 Honey's research
- 21 Upton/Ježek's research
- 22 headlandová-Kalischová's research
- 23 Tomková's research
- 24 Jirásek's research
- 25 to be agreed on