

Beyond the walls (MeAchorei Hasorragim)

Uri Barabash – 1984

1. What is the film plot? 3-5 sentences.

In the beginning of the film we see Uri came into the prison and from the start of the film Uri doing trouble to the guards in the prison. In the prison we have two main groups the Jewish prisoners and the Arab group. The two groups all time in war but they didn't do things each other because the festival. When prisoners heard about terror attack this bring the war to be alive again. Finally prisoners understand that the prison system is the enemy and they join forces.

2. Who killed Hoffman? What was the motivation?

Security Officer helping to smuggle drugs to the prison and Hoffman (name of drugs) is the distributor but because something is stopping shipments people threaten Hoffman and he going to the security officer and ask help to bring drugs because he feel that they going to kill him. When he refuses Hoffman say that he going to go to the prison manager and tell him everything. The security officer do not like this idea and realizes that he should eliminate the threat. The man that bring the uniforms for the security officer is the man that kill Hoffman we don't see in the film if this guy is part of the Arab group.

3. Why did Doron hang himself?

the security officer want to blame someone in the murder of Hoffman and he tell Doron to say that he heard the Arabs tell that they want to kill Hoffman and if don't going to say this Doron going to return his old cell. It seems that in the previous cell someone raped him so he does not want to go back there.

4. Besides being a story of prisoners and wardens, is it also a metaphor for something outside the world of criminals in prison?

For my opinion this this the story of the Arab- Israeli conflict. The film criticizes the policy of the government to continue the conflict as the prison administration wants that the conflict will continue.
