Questions to think about as you continue working on your essay:

- 1. Who would you say is the “ideal” reader for this essay (the person you imagine enjoying this essay the most, or being able to understand it and appreciate it the best)? This could be a real person (your dad), or it could be someone you only imagine. DESCRIBE this person in as much detail as you can.
- 2. What’s one question you have for your “ideal” reader, before/after they read your essay?

If your ideal reader is a real person, give them your essay and ask them this question! And even if your ideal reader is not a real person, give your essay to others, and ask them for feedback. This is the only way to become a better writer.
