Watson has been embroiled in controversy because of comments he made to a UK newspaper

James Watson said he was "inherently gloomy about the prospect of Africa" because 'all our social policies are based on the fact that their intelligence is the same as ours, whereas all the testing says not really'. True or false in your opinion?

A. Listen to the reactions to Watson's comments.

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4CFJrdbzJd0 dobrý úvod, Watson nesrozumitelný http://www.podcastdirectory.com/podshows/1991709 audio – Science weekly

B. Answer the following questions. First put down what you know, then listen and/or read the text to complete the answers.

	I KNOW	I HAVE LEARNT
		http://ocw.mit.edu/OcwWeb/Biology/7-012Fall- 2004/VideoLectures/
Francis Galton
Eugenics
Charles Davenport
IQ tests first instituted (why when)
H.H.Goddard

Eugenics record office (when, how long)
Race betterment association
Immigration Act (when passed, why)
What stopped eugenics movement?
Genetic determinism now and then

		http://www.pbs.org/fmc/lessons/pdf/lesson3handout1.pdf
Franz Boas
Alpha and Beta tests
Eugenicists
Lugemeists
Anthron ala gista
Anthropologists

	http://www.genome.gov/25019961
Is there more genetic variation within populations than between populations ?	