EFFECTIVE OPENINGS

To make an effective presentation, it is important to get your audience interested in the first three minutes of your presentation. You need to hook your audience and cause them to pay attention to you. There are three ways to make an effective opening:

1. Give your listeners a problem to think about.
2. Give them some amazing facts.
3. Give them a story or some personal experience.

A problem

Suppose your company lost 30% of its customer base over a three-month period because a competitor introduced a new product with some new exciting features. How would you respond to this situation?

How many of you have ever had trouble remembering words? Just about everyone, right? Well, imagine a small machine that can read your mind. When you think of a Chinese word or phrase, the machine will wirelessly transfer the correct English word or phrase to your mind. Do you think that's possible?

Amazing facts

According to a new study, the virus causing the bird flu sweeping Asia actually started in China over one year ago. An ineffective vaccine was given to chickens. Thinking the chickens were healthy, chicken farmers exported their chickens throughout Asia for a year without knowing that many of them carried the bird flu virus.

Statistics show that 1 in every 4 Americans have appeared on television and 85% of couples who lose a child (through an accident or a health problem) get divorced.

A story

You may have heard about the 16-year-old girl from Russia who has the ability to "see" broken bones or other medical problems inside people's bodies without the help of any instrument.

Have you ever been in a situation where you wanted to change some personal habit or some physical characteristic? I remember when I was 40 years old and still weighed 50 kg and wanted to gain weight. A psychic (fortune-teller) told me to talk to the cells in my body before every meal and ask them to hold on to my food longer after I ate. I did it for six months and it turned out that at the end of six months I had gained 6 kg - the first weight I had gained since high school. (This is a true story.)

Problem technique

- Suppose How would you . . . ?
- Have you ever wondered why it is that . . . ? You have? Well, if I could show you . . . would you be interested?
- How many of you have ever . . . ? Do you think that's possible?

Amazing facts technique

- Did you know that . . . ?
- According to a new study
- Statistics show that
- I read somewhere the other day that

Story/anecdote technique

- You may have heard about
- Have you ever been in a situation where . . . ? I remember when It turned out that

Inviting questions

- Are there any questions?
- If you have any questions, I'd be pleased to answer them.
- We just have time for a few questions.
- And now I'll be happy to answer any questions you may have.

EFFECTIVE CONCLUSIONS

Using questions

- After all, isn't that why we're here?
- Let me just finish with a question: If we don't do it, won't somebody else?
- So, do we really want to miss this opportunity to get ahead of our competitors?

Quoting a well-known person

- To quote a well-known scientist, ...
- As... once said, ...
- To put it in the words of..., ...
- I'd just like to finish with something former US president Bill Clinton once said: 'You can put wings on a pig, but you don't make it an eagle'.

Referring back to the beginning

- Remember what I said at the beginning of my talk today? Well, ...
- Let me just go back to the story I told you earlier. Remember, ...
- Let me go back to the story I told at the start of my talk. Remember, the sales meeting in Vienna with the disappointed Japanese businessmen? So, this just shows you that knowing your entire product range is the key to success.

Calling the audience to action

- So that's the plan. Now let's go and put it into practice!
- So now it's your turn.
- Now let's make a real effort to achieve this goal!

DEALING WITH QUESTIONS

Clarifying questions

- I'm afraid I didn't quite catch that.
- I'm sorry; could you repeat your question, please?
- I'm sorry, but I missed that. Could you say that again, please?
- I'm sorry, but I don't quite follow/understand/see what you mean. Could you just explain that some more, please?
- So, if I understood you correctly, you would like to know whether...
- If I could just rephrase your question. You'd like to know...
- Let me just check that I have understood your question. You're asking...

Checking whether the questioner is satisfied

- Does that answer your question?
- Is that clear/OK/clearer now?
- Can we go on?
- Is that the kind of information you were looking for?

Responses to good questions

- Good point.
- I'm glad you asked that/brought that up.
- That's a very good question.
- That's actually a question I frequently get asked.
- That's interesting.

Admitting you don't know

- Sorry, I don't know that off the top of my head.
- I'm afraid I'm not in a position to answer that question at the moment.
- I'm afraid I don't know the answer to your question, but I'll try to find out for you.
- Interesting question. What do you think?
- Sorry, that's not my field. But I'm sure Peter Bolt from Sales Department could answer your question.
- I'm afraid I don't have that information with me.

Responses to irrelevant questions

- Well, I think that goes beyond the scope of my expertise/presentation.
- To be honest, I think that raises a different issue.
- That's not really my field.
- I'm afraid I don't see the connection.

Negative responses to questions

- Not quite.
- Not necessarily.
- Not as a rule.
- Hopefully not.
- I don't think/believe so.

Hedging - not saying yes or no.

- It depends.
- On the whole, yes.
- Not if we can help it.
- To some extent.

Postponing questions

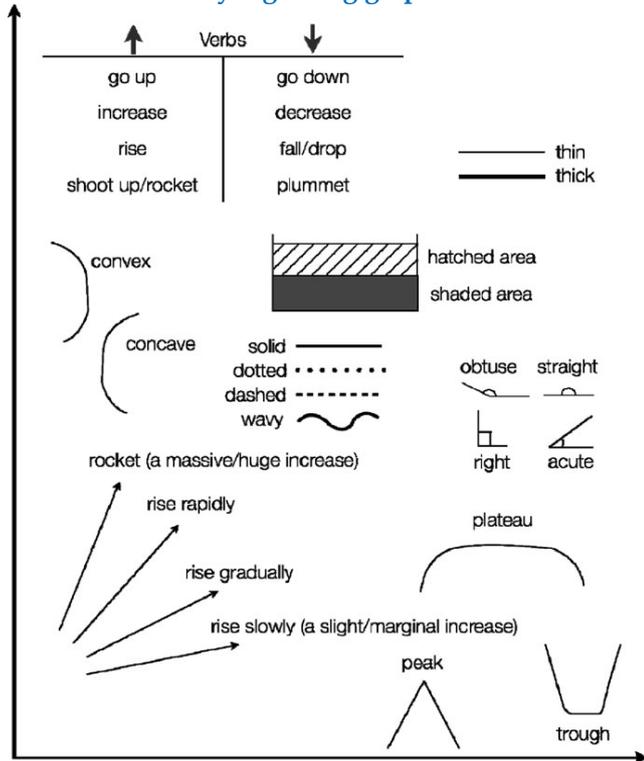

- If you don't mind, I'll deal with/come back to this point later in my presentation.
- Can we get back to this point a bit later?
- Would you mind waiting until the question and answer session at the end?
- Perhaps we could go over this after the presentation.
- I'd prefer to answer your question in the course of my presentation.

Closing discussion time

- I think we have time for one more question...
- If there are no other questions, I'll finish there. Thank you very much.
- So if there are no further questions, I guess...
