

Resumé

Bachelor thesis concerns with effects of arts and crafts on development of visual impairment children's personality. Significant role has a strengthening of nonverbal communication by process of creativity.

Thesis is divided into four chapters. The first chapter makes explanations of visual impairment and a personality of visual impairment. The second chapter focus on personality of visually handicapped with specifying of impacts. There are also defines impacts of acceptation/non acceptation and social integration. The following chapter concerns with attitude of handicapped to art expression. There are includes the most used art and crafts techniques. The last chapter makes an empirical part. It deals with a question of nonverbal communication remedy in context of usage arts and crafts.